

IHBB Asian Championships: Sports and Entertainment Bee: Extras

1. One major banner in the location of this event featured an advertisement for Qatar Airways. Prior to this event, the odds of it happening were 200:1. Many believed that had this event not happened, Luis Enrique would have lost his job. Widely considered the worst player on his team, Sergi Roberto ended up saving his team, scoring on a volley from Neymar in the 94th minute to seal a three goal frenzy and send Edinson Cavani home. For the point, identify this event March 8, 2017 when two football teams from France and Catalunya played in an historic Champions League game featuring Leo Messi.

ANSWER: FC Barcelona beating PSG (Paris Saint-Germain F.C.) 6-1 (both team names are necessary, equivalents are acceptable provided they acknowledge the Barcelona win/comeback)

5. This event was originally supposed to be held in Pakistan as well as other South Asian countries. The mascot in this event was nicknamed “Stumpy”, and the official song of this event was written in Hindi, Sinhala, and Bengali. The final of this event took place at Wankhede Stadium in Mumbai, where Sri Lankan legend Muttiah Muralidaran played his last game and Mahendra Singh Dhoni won the game for his team with a sixer. For the point, identify this 2011 event featuring the world’s second most popular sport where India defeated Sri Lanka to become world champions.

Answer: 2011 Cricket World Cup

3. At the 1958 Brussels World’s Fair, this film was named the greatest of all time. It was banned in many countries until the 1950s out of fear that it would spread communism. One scene in this film depicts the massacre of civilians on the Odessa steps while an earlier scene depicting maggot-infested meat gives motivation for the film’s action. Based on real events that occurred in 1905, for the point, what is this silent film directed by Sergei Eisenstein that tells the story of a mutiny aboard the title ship?

ANSWER: Battleship Potemkin

11. One athlete from this country was famously referred to in racial slurs by Shaquille O’Neal. Another athlete from this country is the first swimmer in history to have an Olympic gold medal in the 200, 400, and 1500 metre freestyle events. The most popular athlete in this country is Kobe Bryant, even though he is not from here, due largely to marketing and branding. This country finished second in the 2016 Olympics in overall medal count with particularly impressive performances in weightlifting and synchronized swimming. For the point, identify this country, home to athletes Sun Yang and Li Na.

Answer: PRC

14. The manga series starring this character has been released in more than 70 “punches” including “I’ve Got Free Time, So...,” “Deep Sea King,” and “Being Strong is Fun.” The popular anime series featuring this character debuted in 2015 with the episode “The Strongest Man.” A bored hero from City Z, this character fights enemies such as Vaccine Man, Mosquito Girl, and the cyborg Genos. For the point, who is this character, born with the name Saitama, who dispatches enemies with a single blow?

Answer: One Punch Man

IHBB Asian Championships: Sports and Entertainment Bee: Extras

This country's experience in sports goes beyond physical to e-Sports, and is notably home to some of the world's top League of Legends players. This country quietly finished fourth in the 2002 World Cup, sponsored by chaebol in the process. This country's top athletes in one sport include Shin-Soo Choo and Byun-Hung Kim, both of whom played for this country's team in the World Baseball Classic. For the point, identify this nation who hosted the 1988 Olympics and has teams who play in the Seoul World Cup Stadium.

Answer: South Korea

This country won back-to-back World Cups in the 1930s, defeating Czechoslovakia in 1934 and Hungary in 1938. Their next World Cup championship would come in 1982 when they defeated Brazil in a historic second round game and beat West Germany in the finals. Brazil would give this team their only two losses in finals, winning in 1970 and 1994. The latter game ended in a 0-0 tie and was determined by a devastating shootout miss by the 1993 FIFA World Player of the Year. This country's fourth World Cup came in 2006 with another shootout. In that game, France's Zinedine Zidane headbutted this team's Marco Materazzi. For the point, name this country whose players have included Dino Zoff and Roberto Baggio.

Answer: Italy

19. Daisuke Matsuzaka won the MVP at the first iteration of this event, which led to his eventual signing with the Red Sox. Cuba barred players who had defected to the United States from playing on their team for the first of these competitions and Italy controversially used a roster composed of nearly all second generation Italian-Americans including Mike Piazza. During the 2017 version of this event, the U.S. lost an early pool game 7-5 to the Dominican Republic, but rallied back to reach the finals against Puerto Rico. Began as a response to the IOC removing baseball from the Olympics in 2005 was, for the points, what international baseball competition that occurs every four years?

ANSWER: World Baseball Classic (prompt on "WBC")

16. Entertainment Weekly wrote of this character, "He bowled us over." Made of stainless inoxium and weighing approximately 18 kilograms, he was captured by a Teedo while wandering alone in the desert. A loyal companion of the flight leader of the Rapier Squadron, his Holoprojector played a key role in the Resistance's location of Luke Skywalker. For the point, who is this adorable droid, owned by Poe Dameron, and a central character in Star Wars: The Force Awakens?

ANSWER: BB-8

20. This country, which was once ruled by King Erlian, is bordered to the south by a mountain chain containing a peak named Stormness Head and to the north by the River Shribble which separates this country from Ettinsmoor. Among the towns in this land are Chippingford, which has a marketplace for bananas and oranges, and Beruna, which lies at the confluence of the Great River and the River Rush, the site of two battles including one where the trees drove off the forces of King Miraz. Well after the rule of its first king, Frank I, this country was ruled by ten kings named Caspian. For the point, name this country from The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe.

IHBB Asian Championships: Sports and Entertainment Bee: Extras

ANSWER: Narnia

23. This British city is the site of the army blockade in the film 28 Days Later, and this city's music scene is the subject of the film 24 Hour Party People. One band from this city released the albums Picture Book and A New Flame while another band which formed in this city recorded the songs, "I Wanna Be Adored" and "She Bangs the Drums." In addition to Simply Red and The Stone Roses, this city gave rise to the Smiths who claimed this city had "so much to answer for" in the song "Suffer Little Children." In soccer, a Premier League team from this city has won the championship 14 times since 1992. For the point, name this city whose United team is led by Michael Carrick and Wayne Rooney.

Ans: Manchester

13. This film character has a guitar named Roosevelt, named after Franklin rather than Theodore, and she's allergic to dog saliva. She tells the story of a girl who ripped her clothes off, jumped into a fountain, and said "I am a kraken from the sea," and Su-Chin says it is about this character. At the beginning of the film in which she appears, she guzzles Sunny-D so that she can have enough urine to pee on the stick for a pregnancy test, the news of which is communicated via her hamburger phone. After she confirms that she is pregnant, she finds a couple to adopt her baby by looking in the PennySaver. For the points, name this high school girl, played by Ellen Page.

ANSWER: Juno MacGuff

4. This former country finished third in the 1930 World Cup, and made the semi-finals again in 1962. This former country was the topic of documentary called Once Brothers, which discussed the former friendship of Drazen Petrovic and Vlade Divac. This former country hosted the Winter Olympics in 1984, despite concerns ethnic strife would be an issue. For the point, identify this country for which Petrovic and Divac played basketball, a country that would splinter into what are now known as "the Balkan Republics".

Answer: Yugoslavia

10. This game won the 2017 BAFTA Award for best Evolving Game, after winning the 2016 awards for Best Multiplayer, Sports, and Family game. Released in 2015, initially for the PlayStation 4 and Windows, it is a sequel to Supersonic Acrobatic Rocket-Powered Battle-Cars. Developed and published by Psyonix, it has its own Championship League, and its updates include ice hockey and basketball modes. What is this video game that is best described as soccer with cars?

ANSWER: Rocket League

9. One athlete from this nation made headlines when he married an African-American woman. Another athlete from this nation is the only athlete to have won four times at each of the four Grand Slam tournaments, and is currently married to Andre Agassi. NBA guard Dennis Schroder is from this nation, which also produced another basketball player nicknamed Thor. For the point, identify this nation, the current defending champions of international football, which is home to Steffi Graf and Dirk Nowitzki.

Answer: Federal Republic of Germany

IHBB Asian Championships: Sports and Entertainment Bee: Extras

24. This animal is part of the name of a character from the Metal Gear Solid series whose design is taken from spaghetti westerns. In a 2009 song named for this animal, Phish sings to it “Where have you gone? Won’t you come out to play?” In Around the World on 80 Legs, it is said in a rhyme that this animal has “awful lots of spots.” For the point, what is this animal of which creepers are terribly afraid in the game Minecraft

ANSWER: Ocelot

25. During the 1994-95 season, this midfielder was on loan to Preston North End and played 5 matches, scoring two goals, but had less success after returning to his team. During the next season, he became instantly famous after a midfield goal against Wimbledon in August 1996. After 11 years with Manchester United, he transferred to Real Madrid where he averaged less than half the goals of the previous eight years. He spent his final season with Paris Saint-Germain, becoming the only player to win league titles in four countries, having played also for the Los Angeles Galaxy. For ten points, name this midfielder and husband of the former Victoria Adams, notable for his ability to bend free kicks.

Ans: David Beckham

25. DESCRIPTION IS ACCEPTABLE: Among the many other examples of this concept...Walking down the street reading a newspaper during “Foreign Correspondent.” Coming off an elevator carrying a violin case during “Spellbound.” In a class reunion photo during “Dial M for Murder.” In a newspaper photo during “Lifeboat.” Carrying a trumpet case during “Vertigo.” Being denied entry on a bus during “North by Northwest.” Wearing a Stetson hat walking by a window in “Psycho.” For the point, these are among the many examples of what British director’s trademarks seen in each of his films?

ANSWER: Appearances by Alfred Hitchcock in his films

6. The name of this place is found in the series Lessons From this place, which includes Loyal Through and Through and Friendship Day. A Return to this place was written by David Benedictus and published in 2009, the first time this place had been officially written about since 1928. The map of this place shows a trap for heffalumps as well as a bee tree. For the point, what is this place, created by A.A. Milne, the home of Winnie the Pooh?

ANSWER: Hundred Acre Wood (accept One Hundred Acre Wood)

22. This game series began in 1986 on the Family Computer Disk System in Japan and has had twelve more titles since its creation. Designed to include platform jumping and a non-linear story, it took much of its tone from the Alien movie series and includes a boss named for that film’s director. Including titles such as Hunters, Other M, and Zero Mission, for the point, what is this Nintendo game series that features the villains Kraid, Mother Brain, and Ridley, and the heroine, a bounty hunter named Samus Aran?

ANSWER: Metroid

IHBB Asian Championships: Sports and Entertainment Bee: Extras

18. In "Grease," this company's advertising had to be blurred in a diner scene so as to not offend a major rival, who had paid money to have their product logo in the film's opening credits. In "Dr. Strangelove," a US Army officer is ordered to shoot a machine owned by this company so someone could make a call from a pay phone. In "The Gods Must be Crazy," the discovery of this company's iconic glass packaging on the ground is seen as another gift of the gods. In "Gump & Company," Forrest Gump accidentally discovered its "new" variety, which later became a marketing disaster. For the point, name this soft drink company that once proclaimed "It's the Real Thing" as opposed to its rival Pepsi.

ANSWER: Coca-Cola (accept "Coke")

25. This woman's Signature Statement fashion line debuted in 2015, and she became a certified nail technician in 2010 to promote her HairTech nail collection. In 2004, she had signed a deal worth $40 million with Nike and has since promoted her "Aneres" line of designer apparel. Her boldest fashion statements may have been her black lycra catsuit and knee high boots, worn respectively at the 2002 and 2004 US Opens. For the point, who is this fashion-forward athlete who holds the Open Era record with 23 Grand Slam tennis titles?

ANSWER: Serena Williams

24. He's not the Green Arrow, but in a short-lived series named for him, this character falls for Dinah Lance and insists that she marry him or die. A flashback in a 1988 storyline reveals this character's pregnant wife Jeannie dies when a baby bottle warmer shorts out, and he is forced to follow through with a robbery of Monarch Playing Cards. In that same story, he kidnaps a man after he shoots and paralyzes the man's daughter, Barbara Gordon. For the point, name this Batman villain, the Clown Prince of Crime.

ANSWER: Joker (accept: Joseph Kerr or Jack Napier)

21. During this edition of the Summer Olympics, the Indonesian women's archery team won their country's first ever medal of any kind, a silver. This was the final edition of the Summer Olympics to hold the Opening Ceremony during the afternoon. Boxer Roy Jones, Jr. lost the gold medal match at this Olympics by judge's decision to a boxer from the host country despite landing 54 more punches and Greg Louganis' HIV was unknown at the time when he hit his head on the diving board at these Olympics. For the point, name these Games, the last Olympic Games to not feature NBA players on the U.S.A. Basketball team and were held in Seoul, South Korea.

ANSWER: 1988 Summer Olympics (also accept the Seoul Olympics before it's mentioned)

20. This ancient sport is a key element in Caravans by James Michener and is the basis of Joseph Kessel's Les Cavaliers, a book that was turned into a film titled The Horsemen, that starred Omar Sharif and Jack Palance as chapandaz. Played mainly in Central Asia, this sport is also known as kokpar, kupkari, and ulak tartysh. For the point, what is this game played on horseback, the national sport of Afghanistan, that takes its name from the Persian for "goat pulling" as the object of the game is to put a goat's carcass in a goal?

ANSWER: Buzkashi (Accept kokbar, kupkari, or ulak tartysh before they are mentioned)

IHBB Asian Championships: Sports and Entertainment Bee: Extras

7. This number is the amount of championships that Everton has in the English Premier League, and it is also the number of times Arsenal has finished second. This number has been worn both by French basketball player Tony Parker and Uruguayan Footballer Luis Suarez. Wayne Gretzky wore two of this number while playing for Edmonton, and there are this number of baseball players playing for each team at any given time. For the point, identify this number, which would reflect the amount of European football players playing for a team if they had had two red cards.

Answer: 9

1. This nation hosted the first edition of the Olympics held in Asia in 1964. One very notable athlete from this country was the MVP of the 2009 World Series, and formerly played for Yomiuri Giants. This country is home to the International Sumo Federation, as sumo is the most popular sport in the national capital. For the point, identify this country, home to athletes like Shinji Kagawa and Hideki Matsui.

Answer: Japan

7. This man was raised by two survivors of the Holocaust as a result of being given up for adoption. Despite failing his tryout with Barcelona, this man signed with InterMilan in 2006, where he notably sported an AC Milan jersey at one point. This man was the first black player to line up for Italy in International play and has been subject to criticism for his rather flamboyant approach to football. For the point, identify this footballer who is nicknamed “Super Mario”.

Answer: Mario Balotelli

4. This event was the first of its kind to use goal-line technology and vanishing foam. Spain, England, and Italy were all eliminated in group play. Uruguay and France exited in the next two rounds. During this event, James Rodriguez scored six goals becoming the first Colombian to win the Golden Boot. This event also marked the first time that consecutive World Cups had been held outside of Europe. For the point, what is this event at which Germany won its first title since reunification, defeating Argentina 1-0 in the final on a Mario Gotze goal?

ANSWER: 2014 World Cup